To the READER.

THE Reaſons of this Sale are truly publiſhed on the Title Page, with this additional one, that it's for the benefit of Mrs. Oliver, the Perſon intereſted, and as I might both largely and very juſtifiably commend the Catalogue for the many conſiderable as well as ſcarce Books contained in all its parts; but where I am afore-hand ſenſible that the Perſons to whom I am to ſell them are ſuch competent Judges for themſelves, it prevents any further Enlargement. If therefore in all the places where-ever this way by Auction hath been eſſayed, it hath been readily received and kindly entertained, as manifeſtly tending to the improvement of Learning and advancemeut of Knowledg; Why ſhould I doubt of its being incouraged here amongſt ſo great a Number of the Learned Clergy, the worthy Gentry, and intelligent Citizens of Norwich? a place anciently fam'd for its happy and commodious Scituation, as for the Wiſdom and Piety, and Numbers of its Inhabitants. In Confidence of a mutual Satisfaction to the Buyers and Proprietor in the iſſue, as I have promiſed (I ſhall, God willing, at the time allotted, perform) in the interim, I crave leave to ſubſcribe my ſelf your obliged Friend and Servant,

E. M.

THis Sale will begin on Monday the 16th day of December 1689. at Mrs. Olivers Houſe in Norwich, from 9 in the Morning to 12, and from 3 in the Afternoon to 8 in the Evening, continuing daily the ſame hours till all the Books are ſold.

That he who bids moſt is the Buyer; and if any Difference ariſe, which the Company cannot decide, then the Book or Books ſhall forthwith be expoſed expoſed to Sale again.

That all the Books in this Catalogue, not otherwiſe expreſſed (for ought we know) are perfect; but if any of them appear to be otherwiſe before they be taken away, the Buyer ſhall have his Choice of taking or leaving them.

That the Money for the Book or Books ſo bought, is to be pay'd by the Buyer within a Week after the Auction is ended, at the place where they they are Sold; where, upon the Payment thereof, the Book or Books ſhall be delivered for the Week aforeſaid.
